Not illustrated. 1898 edition. Excerpt: ...their attention to the Second Alabama on May 13. The Warrior Guards were the first company of Colonel Coxs command to undergo the examiners scrutiny. Of the 103 men who applied for enlistment under Captain Brandon, just twenty-three were rejected, the company being left with precisely the number of accepted men required for muster. Meanwhile the muster work in the First Alabama had progressed with such rapidity that only three companies of Colonel Higdon's command remained to be sworn, the Bessemer Rifles having taken the oath on May 11 and the Etowah Rifles, the Anniston Rifles, the Joe Johnston Rifles and the Huutsville Rifles on May 13. The Oxford Rifles were mustered, May 14, and the Wheeler Rifles, May 17. Then followed an interval of a week in which strenuous efforts were made to secure the few recruits remaining necessary to accomplish the muster of the Clark or Bowie Rifles. Recruiting officers were dispatched to Northern Alabama and advertisements were circulated for volunteers. But the difficulties which beset the Second Alabama at that period were incalculably more embarrassing. Up to May 11, there were only eight companies in Camp Johnston. On that day, however, the Mobile Cadets and the Lomax Rifles reported for duty. Five days later, May 16, the Eufaula Rifles arrived. It was not until that day that Captain Brandon succeeded in having his company, the Warrior Guards, mustered. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the captain, a gifted orator, made his men a stirring speech. He reminded them that they composed the first company in the Second Alabama to be mustered and he hoped they would be first in everything else pertaining to the regimental history. He referred also to the Guards proud record and concluded with an eloquent...

We are happy to provide quality fresh fruits, vegetables, Grass-fed and Finished Beef, Naturally & Humanely raised Pork, Pastured Chickens, and Cage Free Eggs to Clackamas County sustainably on our small acreage.

We strive to provide vegetables that grow well in our climate ensuring the best tasting local food available. We prefer to grow old-fashioned and rare varieties of vegetables believing that they are the best to offer but do also grow a very select, few varieties of hybrids, but they are counted on one hand! Much of what we grow, we save the seed of every year and re-offer it to members of the Seed Savers Exchange.

We thank all of you, the “locavores”, food enthusiasts, market goers, and home chefs for making our goal of fresh, local, fruits and veggies sustainably a reality.

2015 is off to a great start! We are looking forward to what this year has to offer!

All our efforts are gearing up to get the growing season started...from ordering/starting/transplanting seeds, planning rotation crops for the fields, cleaning the greenhouses and field equipment, and clearing the fields! There is not a dull day here on the farm!

Planning for garden start varieties is in full swing also. This year we will be offering many of our favorite heirlooms, open-pollinated, and hybrid varieties that we have grown for the past 10+ years as well as many new-to-us varieties. We are diligent to not purchase, offer or grow GMO seeds or food.

Our mix of garden starts includes many different varieties of tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, ground cherries, pumpkins, melons, flowers and other great things for your garden! Most, if not all, varieties are tried and true for our Pacific Northwest valley climate. Check out the Garden Start page for a printable list of varieties available. Or go directly to a specific list at our Tomato, Pepper, and Other garden start pages.

We grew over 100 heirloom/open-pollinated Pepper varieties and 125+ varieties of heirloom/open-pollinated Tomatoes in 2014! Not counting the numerous other garden necessities like heirloom flowers, cucumbers, summer and winter squash, herbs, and melons amongst other rare and hard to find vegetables! In 2015 we will continue with the tradition
